

IOEA 2022

19th session of the Institutional and Organizational Economics Academy

23-27 May 2022 in Corsica (France)

Using rigorous methodologies, Institutional and Organizational Economics focuses on the theoretical and empirical analysis of institutions, organizations and contracts, as well as on the conditions under which these arrangements emerge and evolve.

Objectives

- To promote the use of appropriate methods to analyze governance structures, and dynamics of organizations and structuration of networks and communities.
- To provide researchers with up to date synthesis on the evolutions of the research program.
- To develop networking and cooperation among researchers and among their institutions.

Public

Ph.D. students, Post-docs and researchers, in Economics, Management, Political Science, Sociology, Law and other social sciences.

Program

Formal lectures will be given every morning. Each lecture is dedicated to the extensive presentation of the state of the art of the discipline on a specific applied or theoretical topic.

Afternoons will be dedicated to workshops devoted either to research questions or methodologies.

Seminars, held in the second part of the afternoon, allow the participants to have their work discussed by recognized scholars in the field.
